

A little tribute to our church in San Nicolas

Saint Teresita the Little Flower

It was in 1929
When the little church was built
There was controversy Enlarge the one in Savaneta, they said

But it was the vision and Determination of one priest
From wood it was erected
First we had a church but no priest

Rebuilt today it proudly stands in the most Strategically and attractive site in San Nicolas
She stands as the Queen of Churches
For 79 years it is serving its parishioners well

In all the years we have seen
Many priests come and go
All leaders in their own way

Named for Saint Teresita the “Little Flower”
Who promised:
“I will send from heaven an abundance of roses”
It's our Garden, we know no other way
And for ever, guarding San Nicolas
She is here to stay.

Tomorrow, October 1, we celebrate the day of Saint Teresita in San Nicolas. She is the patron of the R.K. Church. At 5.45 PM there will be a procession through the streets of San Nicolas. At 6.30 PM there will be a holy mass. It would be very nice if you could place the attached article in your prestigious news paper tomorrow October 1, 2008. This little tribute is dedicated to Saint Teresita and our church in San Nicolas.
